This is the advantage resulting from the The connections with Virginia Central combination of the

CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand | tomy. seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thouand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. LOCAL ITEMS,

ALEXANDIIA SABBATH SCHOOL UNION .-The Alexandria Sabbath School Union held a most interesting meeting on Sunday after-

The meeting was attended by a large number of children and their parents, and was opened at 34 o'clock, by a sweetly sung hymn commencing as follows:-

"We love to sing together, Our hearts and voices one, To praise our heavenly Father,

And his eternal Sou. Rev. Jas. T. Ward, of the Methodist Prosestant church, then addressed the Throne of Grace in an appropriate prayer. Interesting verbal reports were made from the various Sabbath schools connected with part of the various schools, and gave much satisfaction. The children then sang, with sweet accord, the hymn :--

My nature is by sin defiled, Yet Jesus loves a little child." H. O. Claughton, esq., then rose and delivered a forcible, earnest and able address on "The duty of the Sabbath School teach-

"I know 'tis Jesus loves my soul,

And makes the wounded sinner whole;

The addressed was well received and is highly commended. Then followed a hymn which opens:-"Kind words can never die, Cherished and blest, God knows how deep they lie, Stored in the breast;

Like childhood's simple rhymes,

Said o'er a thousand times, Go through all years and climes, The heart to cheer." Thornton Triplett esq., in some eloquent and appropriate remarks, urged upon the children the importance of early realizing their obligations to God and remembering their Creator in the days of their youth. The Schools present then sang the beauti-

"Rejoice, rejoice, the promised time is coming, Rejoice, rejoice, the wilderness shall bloom. And Zion's children then shall sing, The deserts all are blossoming."

ful hymn:--

After which Rev. Jas. T. Ward pronounced the benediction, and the assembly separated, having spent a most pleasant and profitable afternoon.

MISCELLANEOUS READING. THE GAME OF EUCHRE AND LIFE .- There is a genuine humor in the idea that an Arkansas man finds the most natural expression, even of parting advice to his son, in the language of the card-table, and the manner in which the terms of the game of "euchre" are there fitted to the game of life is ingenions: "Bob, you are about leaving home for strange parts. You're going to throw me out of the game, and go it alone. The odds is against you, Bob, but remember always that industry and perseverance are the winning cards; they are the 'bowers.' Book larning and all that sort of thing will do to fill up with, like small trumps, but you must have the bowers to back 'em, else they ain't worth shucks. If luck run agin you pretty strong, don't cave in and look like a sick prosperity and increased usefulness on the chicken on a rainy day, but hold your head up and make 'em believe you're flush of trumps; they won't play so hard agin you. "I've lived and traveled around some,

Bob, and I've found out that as soon as folks thought you held out a weak hand, they'd back agin you strong. So, when you're sorter weak, keep on a bold front, but play cautious, be satisfied with a p'int. Many's the hand I've seen euchred 'cause they played for too much. Keep your eyes well skinned, Bob; don't let 'em 'nig' on you; recollect the game lays as much with the head as with the hands. Be temperate; never get drunk, for then no matter how good your hand, you won't know how to play it; both bowers and the ace won't save you, for there's sartin to be a 'miss deal' or something wrong. And another thing, Bob, (this was spoken in & low tone,) don't go too much on the women; queens is kinder poor cards; the more you have of them the worse for you; you might have three and nary trump. I don't say discard 'em all; if you get hold of one that's a trump, it's all good, and there's sartin to be one out of four. And above all, Bob, be honest; never take a man's trick wot don't belong to you; nor 'slip cards,' nor 'nig,' for then you can't look your man in the face, and when that's the case there's no fun in the game; it's a regular 'cut throat.' So now. Bob, farewell, remember wot I tell you, and you'll be sure to win, and if you don't, serves you right to get 'skunked!'

There are also many other interesting relics in this collection, amongs As the City Council meets to-night, it is which may be mentioned the chest which the venerable Elder Brewster-whose serence and placid features are so much admired, in of Fort Girswold, on Greyton heights, which was taken by the British during the war of the Revolution, and the whole garrison put TIME undersigned have been appointed by Wil- to the sword, is here kept. A large rent is visible in each side of those garments, which mark the entrance and exit of the Colonel's own sword, with which the Briton perfidiously ran Ledyard through the body after he had surrendered. This unparalleled atrociwould fail me to recount the multitude of tory which are securely preserved here. Simi-1.rm mentoes of the great struggle in Virginia might be collected and preserved at Richmond by our historical society. It ought to be done."
